3. [ ] telephoned indicating there had been some top level consideration in NSA looking toward some type of early retirement. He indicated their justification appeared weak and he wanted any thoughts we might have. I explained to him the general attitude as known to us of the Post Office and Civil Service Committees relating to special privileges for certain groups which diluted the general provisions of the Civil Service Retirement Act. In addition, I explained to him our general policy of encouraging retirement when employees are eligible.
